

CONTENTS Spring Focus:

Human Rights and Undergraduate Research

Faculty-Student Collaborative “Jazz” in a Research Seminar .....	7
—Ellen G. Friedman, Margaret E. Leigey
Teaching and Researching Incarcerated Women: Undergraduates Explore Education as a Human Right .....	13
—Kristenne M. Robison
Winnable Struggles: The Value of Activist Approaches for Framing Rights Issues .....	19
—Rachel Stonecipher

Other Articles

From the International Desk: Undergraduate Research and Human Rights: An Australian Case Study on Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling .....	24
—Melissa Curley, Andreas Schloenhardt
Course-based Research on Students’ Own Institution Introduces Historical Inquiry .....	30
—Joseph L. Murray
Assessing Faculty Perspectives on Undergraduate Research: Implications from Studies of Two Faculties .....	37
—Rebecca M. Jones, Shannon N. Davis
Integrating Undergraduate Research into Teacher Training: Supporting the Transition from Learner to Educator .....	43
—Jean T. Slobodzian, Nadya Pancsofar

Departments

From CUR’s President — Julio Rivera .....	2
From CUR’s Executive Officer — Elizabeth Ambos .....	3
From the CURQ Issue Editor — Janet Stocks .....	5
Calendar .....	4
Special Feature: Announcing the 2014 CUR Fellows .....	6
Book Review: Publish and Flourish .....	48
—Susan Berry Brill de Ramírez
In this issue of CURQ on the Web .....	Back Cover