

2021 CUR Biology Division Faculty Mentor Awards Application

Institutional Characteristics Related to Mentoring Undergraduate Research

Type of institution:

- Two-year institution
- Four-year institution; no graduate programs
- Four-year institution with limited graduate degree programs
- Comprehensive university

Typical tenure-track faculty teaching load:

- More than 12 teaching/lab contact hours with students per semester
- 10–12 teaching/lab contact hours with students per semester
- ≤ 9 teaching/lab contact hours with students per semester

Summer research program available for students?

- Institutionally funded
- Externally funded (e.g., NSF, NIH)
- Individual students funded through individual faculty research grants
- None

Journals and books accessible via institution's library?

- Yes No

Faculty load credit for supervising undergraduate research?

- Yes No

Start-up funding for new faculty?

- Yes No

Institutional research grants for students?

- Yes No

Institutional travel grants for students?

- Yes No

Institutional research grants for faculty?

- Yes No

Dedicated research lab space (shared or individual, but not shared with teaching labs)?

- Yes No

Have an Office of Undergraduate Research and Engagement?

- Yes No

Partnering opportunities with nearby institutions?

- Yes No

Please describe the general characteristics of your student body (e.g., resident or commuter, underserved populations, open admission, adult learners)