AURA Awardees
CUR congratulates its 2021 Campus-Wide Award for Undergraduate Research Accomplishments (AURA) awardees Elon University, Mercer University, and the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. This award recognizes institutions with exemplary programs that provide high-quality research experiences for undergraduates. A celebration of these awardees will take place during the national Undergraduate Research Week on Thursday, April 21, 2022. Press Release>>

Fellows Awardees
John Barthell of the University of Central Oklahoma and Sunghee Lee of Iona College are the latest Fellows of the Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR) to be honored for their leadership and service as role models for those involved in undergraduate research, scholarship, and creative activities. Barthell and Lee will be celebrated during Undergraduate Research Week in a virtual celebration on Thursday, April 21, 2022. Full Story>>

It's Award Season
Spring is upon us and many divisions are seeking nominations for the inspiring leadership, mentorship, and research you, your fellow colleagues, and students have accomplished this past year. View the list below to see if your division has any awards with upcoming deadlines.
Remember to Renew for 2022-2023

Membership matters. Community counts. With shared resources, offerings, and the ability to connect with more than 13,000 individuals from over 700 institutions, this diverse membership is working together to advance undergraduate research globally. Continue to engage in discussions with individuals who share your goals, expand your knowledge with the many events and professional development courses CUR offers, and stay a part of this growing, dynamic community. If you are an individual member, renew today. If you are an institutional member, send your membership contact a quick reminder. Membership rates will be increasing after April 30.

Advocate for Posters on the Hill

Calling all faculty, mentors, administrators, and more! Posters on the Hill 2022 will take place virtually on April 26-27, 2022, from 2:00-4:00 PM ET each day. Over 200 individuals submitted their research to present at this prestigious event and only 60 research projects were selected to participate. Grab your friends and colleagues and come out to support these incredible students and help spread the message about the value of undergraduate research at the federal level. Meet our accepted 2022 researchers and honorable mentions>>

Create a Competitive Funding Proposal

The Proposal Writing Institute (PWI) will bring together faculty and administrators interested in preparing proposals for submission to external funding agencies. PWI will take place July 14-18, 2022 at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside and is facilitated by Paula Dehn Ph.D. The multi-day institute will consist of one-on-one work with a mentor, writing, small-group discussions, and critiquing of proposals. The institute has been developed to assist novice to experienced proposal writers in drafting complete and competitive proposals for submission.

How's Your Workload?

Volunteers from CUR's Faculty Workload Working Group have designed a survey aiming to understand how the types and level of institutional support for this faculty work drive faculty participation and, therefore, student access to this important, high-impact practice in higher education. This survey is for a national research study about faculty mentorship of undergraduate research, scholarship, and creative activity. It will take about 15 minutes.
