Preliminary Outline of STR Draft Program

In-Person Training: Sunday, October 23 – Monday, October 24, 2022

Sunday, October 23, 2022: 12:00 PM – 7:00 PM ET
- Arrivals and Check-in
- Welcome
- Session on Connecting & Building Relationships with Policymakers
- Networking Receptions
- Dinner (on your own) – Connect with your team or new colleagues you have met

Monday, October 24, 2022: 8:00 AM – 2:00 PM ET
- Breakfast + Lunch provided
- Sessions on:
  - Improving the Position, Perception, and Appreciation of Stakeholders,
  - Policy Brief Writing Workshop, and Advocacy Toolkit and Engaging with Federal Policymakers

Online Webinar Series (Scheduled live for 1.5 hours each, but will be recorded and available for 60 days)

Friday, December 2, 2022*
Friday, January 27, 2023*
Friday, February 24, 2023*
Friday, March 31, 2023*
*dates are subject to change

Topics will include:
- Tips and tricks on op-ed writing and pitching
- The ways to engage with government agencies
- Navigating your network of policy mapping
- Handling media interviews and relationships

Online Meetings with Policymakers
Scheduled by BOSE Washington Partners via an online scheduling tool between February-April 2023 once the new Congress is in session and based on availability of participants and policymakers. Meetings are typically scheduled for 30 minutes to 1 hour.

Online Showcase: Connecting with the CUR Community, Colleagues, Friends, Family, and Beyond

Tuesday, April 25-Wednesday, April 26, 2023: 2 hours each day
(Pending release of Congressional Schedule)

Online Community and Resource Library
Place to connect with participants, post questions and access resources throughout the STR program. Access to this community happens at the beginning of the program.