Journal Scope, Advertising Policy, and Schedule

The peer-reviewed Scholarship and Practice of Undergraduate Research: The Journal of the Council on Undergraduate Research publishes scholarly work that examines effective practices and novel approaches, explores pedagogical models, and highlights the results of assessment of undergraduate research. The Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR) accepts advertising from organizations and individuals if such ads are in line with its tax-exempt educational purpose, which is to promote undergraduate research and education. The journal readership includes libraries and more than 13,000 faculty members, administrators, and others who work with undergraduate researchers. It is published four times a year: Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer.
