

CONTENTS Winter Focus:

Connecting Undergraduate Research to Federal and State Legislators

Connecting Undergraduate Research at PUIs to Legislators:

Designating a State and Federal Liaison 8

—Alfredo Medina

Communicating Student Research at SUNY New Paltz to State and Local Elected Officials 13

—Maureen A. Morrow, Kathleen Tobin

Using Public-Sector Research Projects to Engage Undergraduates 19

—David W. Szymanski, Charles Hadlock, Edward Zlotkowski

CURQ Vignettes: Additional Examples of Connecting Undergraduate Research to Federal and State Legislators 27

Other Articles

From the International Desk: Is More Always Better? An Australian Experiment with a Research-Intensive Undergraduate Degree 28

—Anna Wilson, Susan Howitt

What Is a Mentor? 39

—Kirsten Yaffe, Carol Bender, Lee Sechrest

Understanding College Generational Status in the Undergraduate Research Mentored Relationship 40

—Jeanne Mekolichick, Michael King Gibbs

Departments

From the President—Mary Crowe 2

CURQ on the Web 2

From the Executive Officer—Elizabeth Ambos 4

Calendar 5

From the Issue Editor—James T. LaPlant 6

From Washington Partners—CUR’s Partner in Advocacy 7

Book Review: Staff-Student Partnerships in Higher Education 47

—Orianna Carter