CONTENTS

Winter Focus: Models of Undergraduate Research

Fostering Student/Faculty Collaborations through the “Research Group” Model: An Application to Colleges and Schools of Business
—Kenneth R. Bartkus, Ph.D., College of Business Administration, Utah State University

IT ALL BEGAN WITH A SIMPLE QUESTION
—Carol Bender, The University of Arizona

Models of Interdisciplinary Research and Service Learning at Hope College
—Aaron A. Best, Matthew DeJongh, Amanda J. Barton, Jeff R. Brown and Christopher C. Barney, Hope College

The Increasing Presence of Undergraduate Research in Two-Year Colleges
—David R. Brown, Southwestern College, Thomas B. Higgins, Harold Washington College, Penny Coggins, Redlands Community College

An Alternative Research Model of Faculty, Undergraduate, and High School Student Collaboration
—Benjamin D. Caldwell, Missouri Western State University

A Model for Creating and Sustaining an Undergraduate Research Community at Primarily Undergraduate Institutions
—D. Grant Willhite, Terry A. Bunde, and Stephen E. Wright, Tennessee Wesleyan College, Maryville College, Carson-Newman College

Other Articles

Undergraduate Research in Your Community
—Robin Potochink, Council on Undergraduate Research

Changes to the Petroleum Research Fund
—Chris Hollinsed, Petroleum Research Fund, Director, Office of Research Grants, American Chemical Society

Departments

From the Executive Officer—Nancy Hensel

From the President—Kerry K. Karukstis

Undergraduate Research Highlights

News
CUR Councilor Elections
CUR National Office News
Calendar